

April 22 is Earth Day

Be Green for Earth Day

What does it mean to be green?

Green is more than just a color—it is symbolic of the action we can take to help protect the environment. Every day, we make choices that affect the amount of trash and pollution that are produced in our world. Here are a few things you can do to go green for Earth Day:

- Choose a reusable lunch box and water bottle instead of paper plates and plastic cups.
- Recycle cans, bottles, paper, and packaging.
- Donate clothes, toys, and books that you no longer need.
- Conserve water by turning the faucet off while you brush your teeth.

Fun Facts About Mother's Day and Father's Day

- More phone calls are made on Mother's Day than any other day of the year—approximately 122 million calls!

- Mother's Day is the third largest greeting card-sending occasion, and Father's Day is the fourth largest.

- In 2022, Americans spent $20 billion on Father's Day gifts and $31 billion on Mother's Day gifts.

- Mother's Day became an official U.S. holiday in 1914. However, Father's Day didn't become an official holiday until many decades later, in 1972.

Managing your Money with Math

Math isn't just a subject in school—it's an important part of managing money. Saving money, purchasing a new toy, or creating a budget all involve math. Complete the exercise below to understand how math and money go hand in hand.
